NAVAL WAR BEGUN.

Flagship Kearsarge sails to look for the "Crimson."

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 11.—To defend the Maine coast from the attack from the "hostile fleet" of United States vessels which put to sea from here on Monday the remaining portion of the north Atlantic squadron has sailed from here. The flagship Kearsarge with Rear Admiral Barker commanding led the fleet on the way out, but soon after they were clear of the harbor the vessels separated to proceed to the positions or sections of coast assigned to them for protection. As the orders were secret none of the ships knew what its station was to be until after the departure from here.

With Admiral Barker to act on the defensive are Admiral Coghlan on his flagship the Olympia and Admiral Wise on his flagship the Yankee. The other vessels of the fleet are the battle ships Alabama and Illinois, the cruisers Baltimore, Prairie and Panther, the dispatch boat Vixen, the torpedo boat destroyers Decatur, Bainbridge, Barry, Dale and Chauncey, two government tugs and the school ship Hartford.

As the hostile fleet which sailed Monday under Rear Admiral Sands is permitted to make an attack or attempt an anchorage at any time after this noon it is expected every vessel on the defense would reach its position before nightfall. They must protect the coast from Cape Ann to Eastport.

Admiral Sands' squadron includes the battle ships Indiana, Massachusetts and Texas and three torpedo boat destroyers.

REBELS TAKE A CITY.

Chinese Viceroy Denounces Authorities For Letting It Happen.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 9.—The civil and military officers of Kwangsi have been denounced by the Chinese government by the new viceroy for sending false reports of the rebellion in that province, which is regarded as very alarming.

The rebels attacked Anjenhsien in Hengchu prefecture recently. The citizens were practically without arms, and the governor, hearing of its danger, sent a large amount of war munitions to them, but the escort was defeated and the munitions captured by the rebels, who then assaulted and captured the city.

President Storm Bound.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 9.—President Roosevelt is storm bound at Sagamore Hill. A severe northeaster has been raging for hours. During the day the president received two callers, the Rev. Dr. Reginald John Campbell of London and W. L. Ward of Port Henry, N. Y. During the day the president, with the assistance of Secretary Barnes, disposed of a large amount of executive business which had been sent here from the various departments at Washington.
